

HANSON EXCELLENCE IN MANAGEMENT AWARD

2023 CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

DESCRIPTION

The Joint Environmental Training Coordinating Committee (JETCC) is seeking nominations for the Leeann Hanson Excellence in Management Award in recognition of Ms. Hanson's three decades of service to the water and wastewater industry in the state of Maine. Ms. Hanson's contributions to the industry are many and her impact on operators and their professional growth during her tenure as the JETCC Program Manager cannot be overstated.

One of Leeann's significant contributions was the development and growth of the JETCC Management Candidate School. Providing a critical training opportunity for those whose careers include a management role or who aspire to work in management, MCS has become an integral program for JETCC, with over 200 graduates, since its inception in 2009.

This award is intended to recognize a manager in the water and wastewater field who demonstrates commitment to their employees, their facility, and the water and wastewater community. Nominations are evaluated by the JETCC based on the merits of the nominee and the testimony of the person who has nominated them. Eligibility and evaluation criteria are described in more detail below.

ELIGIBILITY

Any individual who has management responsibilities and works in the water and/or wastewater sector in the State of Maine is an eligible nominee for this award. Nominations can be submitted by anyone in the sector who can attest to the quality of the candidate, including staff who work for the nominee, selectmen or board members, and other colleagues. Managers cannot self-nominate. Nominations submitted by staff supervised by the nominee will be given extra weight during the review process. Nominees do not have to be graduates of the JETCC MCS program to qualify.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

Generally, JETCC will make its selection based on the merits of each nominee, as described in the nomination materials. Nominations should be made with a focus on one or more of the following aspects of excellence in management:
